

History Department Worksheet: For Students and Faculty

A student majoring in history must take a minimum of 10 or 11 units, including an introductory course; at least 6 units at the 200-or 300-levels; HY 399: Junior Seminar; and a 2-block senior sequence. Among the 6 elective units, students must satisfy the following: a course in US History, the Time Distribution requirement (2 units) and the departmental Geographic Distribution requirements (3 units). The Department strongly recommends foreign language competence beyond the intermediate level.

Introductory Course	HY110:
	Or Two-block History Course:
6 Elective Units at the 200- or 300-level These electives should include the required units listed below. A single course may fulfill more than one requirement.	1)
	2)
	3)
	4)
	5)
	6)
US History (1 unit)
Time Distribution (2 units) At least one unit addressing a period up through the eighteenth century and one unit addressing a period from the eighteenth century forward. (Note: units may also count toward geographic distribution)	1) unit up through 18 th Century
	2) unit from 18 th Century
Geographic Distribution (3 units) At least one unit each in three of the following six regions: Africa, East Asia, Europe, Latin America, Middle East, South Asia (Note: units may also count toward time distribution)	1)
	2)
	3)
Junior Seminar: HY339 Studying History
Senior Sequence: HY410/HY420

Students with a minimum G.P.A. of 3.6 within the major may submit their HY399 essays, and Senior Essays or Senior Theses to be considered for distinction